DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This small log house has been covered with clapboard and now with brick-effect printed tarpaper. Oblong, it has several additions and enclosures; facing east the roof ridge line runs north-south. 2 stories over a stone bank basement, it is basically 3 bays by 2 with several windows and doors altered in the last hundred years. Windows are 2 lights over 2 ~~lights~~ A small brick chimney rises to the peak ~~at~~ inside each end wall.

Log walls might have been exposed on a wall that is now interior, since a porch on the east side is enclosed, but this was not appreciated as late as 1966, and the suggestion surprised the owners in 1971!

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

This farm is on land of marginal agricultural value, and the small house and barn reflect the general lack of prosperity of this farm. The architectural style of the house may be older than the house itself - ~~representative~~ and has been preserved because of the need for inexpensive housing. The present owners, a minister and his wife who are in their seventies, have lived largely on a non-farm income.
